

CPY IN SACRAMENTO

Restaurant Reviews

Let me tell you, from a food expert!!! If you're looking for pizza, because that seems to be the hot item, go to Upper Crust! This place is located right next to the Hyatt. This place has the best pizza your going to find on K street, and you cant miss the place the sign looks like a huge..."caucus." And if your not too in the mood for pizza, a couple doors down there's a great place called Café Dolce. This place has sandwiches and other items, not the best, but really close and still good. Not only do they have sandwiches and stuff, they also have ice cream, really really good ice cream! So if your looking for a sandwich and don't want to pay too much, Blimpies and Subway. Both excellent choices and both my personal favorite food ever! Since there are no Blimpie around here I'm like the subway king, but if there were Blimpies around here that's where I would be 24/7. Lets move on, if your not feeling sandwiches too much, there is always that great sushi spot, Taiko Sushi. I'm not going to go into any more detail, but if you want something random, just go to the mall....basically they have all

Take his or her breathe away....and maybe something else

So if you are looking for that special someone while you're at Sac. here are some helpful tips to sweep that special someone off there feet. But before we work on what to say to them, where first going to learn about how to approach them because like my good friend, and former student of mine Mr. Hitch once told me " 99.9% of the time people don't really care what's coming out of your mouth."

The approach-

You want to walk up feeling relaxed, and confident. You need to keep in mind that they most likely don't want to talk to you, in fact they don't even know that you're alive, but it is your job to get that person to notice you. Keep in mind that you probably won't even see this person ever again so what the hell. IT'S SAC.

The Stare-

I'm a big supporter of the double take. The double take is charming and in the clear. You need to make sure that you make eye contact, and after that it's up to the line.

The Line-

>Was your father a thief? Because someone stole the stars from the sky and put them in your eyes.

>Would you touch me so I can tell my friends I have been touched by an angel?

>There is just one thing that you haven't told me...your name.

>Do you work for UPS? I could have sworn I saw you checking out my package.

>Hi. I'm an astronaut, and my next mission is to explore Uranus

>Do you know what'd look good on you? Me.

>Do you believe in love at first sight or should I walk by again?

Well I have done all I can to help you guys out, and now its up to you. Remember if this doesn't work don't blame me because after all I don't even know what you look like!

NIGHT TIME

Thursday-

The Bounce House: The bounce house is held in the convention center and is a giant indoor carnival. There are several blow-up games like boxing, a moon bounce, and other whacky and wild adventures that are tons of fun. Don't miss it, you'll wish you hadn't.

Friday:

Governors Ball: The Governors Ball is a dance that is held by the Governor for all the delegates of California. It is a formal ball that commemorates an end to the year of Youth Model Legislature and Court.

Saturday-

Hypnotist: The hypnotist is a sure way to forget all the homework your going to have to do when you get home. Who knows what is going to happen, venture at your own risk!

Sunday-

Delegation and Statewide Friendship Service/Slideshow: The friendship service and slideshow is a sad end to an amazing year. Everyone goes and sits around watching the pictures that sum up the feelings of the year, and listening to the elected delegates tell everyone what an amazing year it has been. Definitely attend this event.
