The Girls

By Jennifer Wiacek

If you haven't figured it out already, CPY is an amazing delegation. We have spirit, dedication, unity and 11 *tight* advisors including 7, that's right count them, female advisors. So, just in case you haven't had the opportunity to have a chat with all "the girls," here is a perfect opportunity to get to know a little about each of them. (This is only a temporary supplement, please take time to get to know all your advisors, they really all have a lot to offer each of you—and are willing to give it free of charge.)

"Straight from the horses mouth..."

1. What do you plan to bring to the delegation?

"A free spirit, an open mind, and a passion for legitimate craziness." Lindsey
"Whatever they need." Melissa
"Thunder." Kelly
"Fun and support." Shaune
"I can bring cupcakes next meeting." Christy
"A positive attitude and lots of smiles." Jenny
"Support." Amanda

2. Favorite Y&G memory?

"There are so many...I am looking for some new ones." Lindsey
"Coming to CPY." Melissa
"Seeing delegates come back as advisors." Kelly
"All the conferences are memorable." Shaune
"The entire delegation playing in the mud when the bus got stuck at BOB." Christy
"Winning Premier Delegation in 2002." Jenny
"Dave getting the bus stuck in the mud at Camp Roberts." Amanda

3. What do you do for a living, or what do you plan to do?

"I play sports, dance and cheer (PE coach, dance director and cheer coach)." Lindsey
"Work for the YMCA—I plan to finish my Master and travel." Melissa
"Physical Therapist." Kelly
"I work with high school and middle school kids." Shaune
"Teach." Christy
"I work at the YMCA El Rincon child care site, and if you need service learning hours—see me!" Jenny
"I am currently a senior at CSUDH and I plan to teach special education for elementary school age children." Amanda

4. What would you do with a million dollars?

"Go on vacation with Dylan and Sage and make a donation to the Culver Palms Family YMCA sustaining campaign! YEH!" Lindsey
"Travel, pay off bills, buy a house." Jenny
"Share it and travel." Kelly
"Buy my beach house and travel the world." Shaune
"Buy a house and invest." Christy
"Buy dinners at every advisor meeting for all the advisors, travel everywhere, and save some so I can play with my kids all day long and still volunteer at the YMCA." Jenny
"TRAVEL." Amanda

Have you been paying attention? Do you think you know your advisors yet? Test yourself...Who said what?

5. 3 words that describe you.

A. "Hot, Sexy, Fabulous."
B. "Dependable, Caring, Corky."
C. "Like TLC—Crazy, Sexy, Cool."
D. "Happy, Funny, Girl."

answers below

“ Volunteers don’t get paid because they are worthless... but because they are priceless.”

Your advisors get a lot out of this program, and from working will all of you. And like all of you, they have some goals they would like to accomplish this year:

- “I want all new delegates to get an excellent experience from y&g.” Shaune
- “Get to know all the delegates.” Amanda
- “I want to get to know all the delegates, and help the delegation bond together with spirit.” Lindsey
- “Get to know all the delegates, and have a great (in code) time.” Christy
- “Goals ( the goals we wrote down at leadership weekend)” Kelly
- “Help build another strong delegation through spirit, tradition and unity.” Jenny
- “I want to make sure that every delegate has a great time and walks away from y&g a better person.” Melissa

Answers:

Who said what?

- a. Shaune
- b. Amanda
- c. Lindsey
- d. Christy
- e. Jenny
- f. Melissa
- g. Kelly

Pop Quiz

- 1. A
- 2. D
- 3. C
- 4. C
- 5. D
- 6. C
- 7. A
- 8. D
- 9. D
- 10. A
- 11. D
- 12. T
- 13. D
- 14. E

Scoring

If you scored 12-14 right you may know your advisors better than you know your parents or Jenny makes really easy quizzes.

If you scored 8-11 you may know a lot about them but can you name each one?

If you scored below 7 you may think it’s not important to know your advisors. (Think Again)
